

Judges' Comments

Class	COMMENT
1	These wines generally lack fruit intensity and are tending towards coarseness
2	Fruit flavour is the primary requirements and a lot of wines were lacking. We looked to reward wines that did have flavour and also balance, without phenolics
3	Many wines lacked freshness and appeared dull. Top wine displayed fresh fruit and good balance.
5	A well made class of commercial wines.
7	A good range of styles. The award winners were bright and well structured. It was disappointing to see many wines with easily prevented faults.
8	Best wine shows excellent spice and fruit. Many wines showed a gravy like character.
10	A lot of wines looking dull and tired. Award wines were fresher - fruit and softness as per class description.
11	Top wine showed good use of oak and intensity of fruit.
13	Many wines lacked varietal definition. The wines had over the top oak characters.
14	Wines reflect a difficult vintage. Few wines having genuine fruit depth. Many lacking fruit and some unfortunately showing oak imbalance in an attempt to compensate for fruit.
15	A strong class indicating the suitability of the variety. One wine a little overdone.
16	Quite a number of wines showed stressed or "hung" fruit characters, common from a difficult vintage. Some V.A. and Brett evident, which is disappointing.
17	An ordinary class with many wines showing green sappy characters. The top wine showed intensity of fruit and some complexity.
18	No standout wines in the class. The award winners showed freshness and structure. The awarded wines were of various styles. Too many wines were faulty.
19	The key seems to be the balance of sugar, acidity and CO2. Some wines overly sweet, others appeared hard. Better wines had balance and freshness of fruity characters.
22	Very good class. Top wines having lusciousness, freshness and importantly balance.
24	Somewhat developed and plain wines, reflecting a difficult vintage.
25	Several wines displayed oatmeal like characters, which detracted from the wine. The awarded wines showed balance and some fruit character.
27	A strong class of well made commercial wines.
35	Wines lack fruit flavour and structure, are a little hollow and show over abundant oak.
37	Hard tannins without fruit support.
38	A disappointing class of wines that lacked fruit and intensity. Many oak selections did not take into account fruit weight.
39	Plain wines, some degree of staleness evident.
40	Excellent class. Top wine just lovely (and fresh!)
41-44	"Very good wines across all classes (100% medal rate).Gold medal wine - excellent!"
54	Very good class.
55	Very attractive, balanced and fresh brandy. Could not want much better in this class.
56	Freshness perhaps the difference between the two results.
58	Although a high medal strike rate, it was a little disappointing. 2011 obviously difficult.

2012 Chairman's Report

This year's 40th consecutive Riverland Wine show is a remarkable achievement; it is one of the longest running regional wine shows in Australia. The industry has changed from the show's beginning in 1973, but the show's goals remain similar- to provide a forum for the Riverland wines (and now also those from similar inland warmer climes) to be compared against each other. This critical comparison, performed by judges comprised of industry professionals from many regions, give producers perspective as to how their wines are seen against their peers.

David Morris assumed the role of Chief Judge this year, taking over the role from Mike Farmilo. David brings a wealth of experience from his many years as a show judge, and is also a highly respected winemaker.

This year, we had a significant increase in the number of entries from the previous year, perhaps an indication of industry confidence or perhaps in support of the significant changes made to the show schedule. In any case we are grateful to those who support the show, not only with entries but also in sponsorship, judging, or just hard work helping out. The running of the show is made immensely easier by those who return each year volunteering their time; many of these people are from wine and food clubs in the region, or from sections of the wine industry.

Once again this year's show has uncovered a number of award winning wines across a wide range of styles. These serve as benchmarks to those who seek to improve the quality of their wines, and on behalf of the committee I congratulate the producers who were successful. I look forward to another successful show in 2013.

Code of Practice for the display of awards

- Producers will only display awards gained from competitions authorised by the AWBC.
- Producers will not use medals, stickers, symbols or other devices in order to misleadingly convey the impression that the wine has received an award at an open, objective and independent competition.
- Awards received by an individual wine will bear the year of award and the class description and as a general rule shall only be applied to wines bearing the name under which the exhibit was entered. However, in recognition that a wine could be entered in a show before a wine has been finally allocated to a Brand, portability of an award so that it can stay with the wine which won it shall be permitted providing it is allowed by that show.
- Awards received by a class of wines (eg "Winemaker of the Year", "Most Successful Exhibitor") shall not be used to suggest the individual wine has received any particular distinction. These awards will not be presented on the bottle in the form of a medal.
- Compliance by a producer (including by subsidiaries or by associated companies) with this Code of Practice is a prerequisite for entry to any show of which the display of awards or medals are authorised by the AWBC for export to Europe.
